The annual ASHAO Horse Show had beautiful weather. The sun shined both days, and though temperatures were a little cool on Saturday, things warmed up on Sunday. There was definitely an increase in Saddlebred participation; besides horses from Ohio, the states of Kentucky, W. Virginia and Pennsylvania, all had horses showing at ASHAO. This show is the club's annual horse show, making it a double point show towards year end high point awards.

The show grounds are located at the Ashland County Fairgrounds, and the indoor arena was open at all times and nicely decorated with the ASHAO's new banner proudly displayed along the rail. Goody bags for the horses were passed out to all entries and there were plenty of Saddle & Bridles available to read. The ring was well maintained at all times, and there was plenty of good lighting and a great sound system. Announcer Terry Corley gave updates on class entries, Sara Catlin checked numbers, and Carl Getts got them into the ring. Alan Brindle and Leajean Mele made sure the entries made it onto the computer, and Diana Pistora made sure the class sheets made it to the ring. This year there was a phone from the announcer's booth to the horse show office, which made for better communication. President Leslie Reynolds made sure the ribbons and the beautiful resin Saddlebred horse heads were awarded to the stake winners.

After the Saturday evening session, the first ever progressive barn aisle party was held with pizza, chili, Sloppy Joes, vegetable tray, brownies, and strawberry salsa and chips on the menu.

The Saddlebred In Hand championship only offered two places with eight entries eligible. After it was all said and done, the beautiful black mare Veronica's Surprise and Kaitlin Klucas took the tri-color, plus the Saddlebred Pleasure In Hand, and second in the open in hand! The Saddlebred Open In Hand was won by handsome Constantino and Roy Harris. Sporty Reedann's High Phlier and Sarah Brandt were very pleased with the reserve after the red in the Saddlebred Country In Hand. The handsome Longshadow's Madrigal and Rachel Rohrbach won the Saddlebred Country In Hand class. Saddlebred Three-Year-Old In Hand found Not Again and Michael Cunningham for the blue, with Ace's Again and Jennifer Gorsuch for the red. The red for the Saddlebred Show Pleasure In Hand was Lenore's Woopin' Good Time and John Cyphert.

The Adult Saddle Seat Equitation was won by the poised and talented Kim Hayes with Candy Gierke for the red. Pretty Shelby Hoge won the UPHA Challenge Cup 17 and Under and 13 and under class.

Good riding Rachel Rohrbach took the red in the 13 and under saddle seat. Red in the Cup class and the 14 to 17 went to talented Kodi Stebner. Pretty Lee Ann Masters topped the Saddle Seat 14 to 17 class. The UPHA 10 and Under Cup was won by the cute newcomer, Sydney Kent, with equally cute

Jennie May Huff taking the red. Walk Trot Pleasure 10 and Under E/W found I Ben Bad and Nathan May for the blue, with Victory Talk and Jessica Zartingo for the red. Walk/Trot Equitation had cutie Jennie May Huff for the blue with Madaline Young for the red. Leadline E/W Six and Under went to sweetie Maya Sember and pixie Hannah Peer took the red. Saddle Seat Pleasure Equitation 17 and Under had pretty redheaded Morgan Martin in the winner's circle.

Only one entry returned for the Saddlebred Fine Harness stake and it went to the very impressive team of Untamed Obsession and Clayton Caldwell. This team took the red in the amateur class. Amateur winner was the popular and dramatic team of Definitely Dianna and Kaye Bowles-Durnell. Saddlebred open winner went to the summer blonde team of Unbelievable Blonde and Anthony Edwards.

The Saddlebred Three-Gaited stake had only one team, but they were oh so good as Kaitlin Klucas and the black beauty Virtual Viper took the stake and the Amateur/Juvenile blue. Donna Grieder and her pretty Never Worry were eye-catching as they took the Saddlebred open class.

Only two made it back to the Saddlebred Five-Gaited stake, but after a very exciting show, Shamrock's Riverdance and Mary Katherine Brown were all smiles as they racked down victory lane. The Lady Pearl and Sydney Kent took the reserve after a terrific show for the blue in the Amateur/Junior rider class; the places were reversed in the qualifying class. Dollar For Dollar and Steve Demjen made a solo show in the open class but one not to be forgotten. Mary Waickman and New Best Friend were super for the Saddlebred Junior Five-Gaited blue.

Claiming the tri-color for the Saddlebred Park Pleasure Stake was the marching team of Lenore's Geronimo and Roy Harris, after a red in the open class and the win in the junior class, with the beautiful Sultan's Ring Of Fire and Liz DeSante for the reserve. The open class was very exciting with Craig Hummel and perky Catalyst's Nip Of Wine taking the blue. Red in the junior class went to Bravo's Charlie Brown and Linda Heater. The driving class had two wonderful horses with the very "trotty" Mostly Mink and Anthony Edwards in the buggy for the blue, with another trotting rascal, Ultimate Connection, and Mary Ross for the red. The Park Amateur class put the pretty team of Etta Caldwell and King's Harlem Rose for the blue with Foxe's Midnight Shadow and Mary Ross for the red.

Two entries came back for the Saddlebred Three-Gaited FMT Stake with the doubly gifted Doubletrees Scarlet Design and Mary Waickman taking the stake and qualifying class; these were brilliant shows indeed. Making two shows for the red was the colorful stallion Aramor's Jambalaya and Liz DeSarle.

The 12 entry Saddlebred three-gaited show pleasure stake was absolutely awesome, and the verbal crowd made it all the more exciting. The beautiful and elegant team of Veronica's Surprise and Kaitlin Klucas were classic to win the tri-color and the AOTR class. Another classic black horse, Kalarama's Patina Of Blue, and Kim Hayes, took the reserve and the red in adult class. The junior exhibitor class was won by Barnabas and good riding Jordon Yount. Giving a heart pounding performance was Absolute Lady and Moira Esson for the red. Major Cool and Candy Gierke won the adult, after making a grand show for the red in the AOTR class. Leslie Reynolds and Baily's Irish Rose were in good spirits to top the five-gaited pleasure class. The red went to newcomer Callaway's Lilly and Emily Cullison. Saddlebred Show Pleasure driving had Michael Cunningham and Aruba Again for the blue with Lexington Dark Alley and Helen Harris for the red.

The hunter country pleasure stake and Saddle & Bridle Hunter Classic had a very happy Lynn Shaw and My

and Diana Pistora

Genius Private Secretary in the winner's circle for the winning photo. They also took the Mayo Gem trophy. Reserve champion was the new team of Ginny Jefferies and the striking Harlem's Buckeye, topping the qualifying class and the red in the Saddle & Bridle class. Intellectual High and Jill Wilson were standouts — a pretty horse and rider, I might add — to win the Saddlebred western pleasure; they took the red in the Saddlebred Hunter class. Lynn Shaw and My Genius Private Secretary took the reserve and the red in the western class; this was a good show for them and Lynn looked so nice in her black sparkle top. Saddle & Bridle Shatner winner and class winner went to the colorful and true team of CF First Night Action and Sharon Cassel. The red went to David Barnett with his Fox Design. Candy Gierke and Candy Cheesecake were awesome to win the huge county pleasure stake, the AOTR class and the red in the adult class. Red in the AOTR class went to Legend's Capital Gains and Ellen Vajda. Adult class winner was the breezy team of Coolside and Jessica Wilson. Atomic Tom and Leah Bornhorst were great to capture the junior exhibitor county pleasure class with Showtime Shamrock and Kaitlyn

Diana Pistora and Mary Waickman.

Klucas for the red.

The Hackney road pony winner was the speedy team of Melbourne's Classic Headliner and Alex Terry. Rhythm's Masterpiece and Mary Katherine Brown took the red. The Hackney pleasure pony driving had Jimmy The Tulip and Harriet Schultz for the blue. Hackney pony under saddle put Melbourne's Classic Headliner for the blue, with Hummer and Bailey Rapphold for the red.

Please note: The ASHAO Sweepstakes will be held at the Springfield Charity Horse Show. In order to compete, you must be a member and you must have competed at one member show prior to the sweepstakes. The Springfield show is a double point show and counts as two shows.
