We are proud to feature on our March front cover, the awe-inspiring stallion Undulata's Nutcracker, by CH Caramac and out of Christmas In New York ERB by The New York Times. He is owned by David Jamps and Kris Schones. Standing at Willowbank Farm in Simpsonville, Kentucky, he is truly setting all-time records, headlining the All American Cup Stallion Auction for four consecutive years.

A breathtakingly beautiful stallion, Nutcracker possesses great ability, impeccable bloodlines, a stunning presence with his eloquent head carriage and beauty, that he is passing on to his offspring.

Two of his first offspring to show are pictured, Undulata's Nuts And Bolts, (out of WGC CH Madame Machine) and Undulata's Heir Apparent, (out of WGC An Heir About Her) both crowned world champions unanimously. These two outstanding colts truly exemplify the superior attributes of Undulata's Nutcracker. The future is unlimited for this young and beautiful record-breaking stallion.
